EDITORIAL

Dear Reader,

I feel very happy to present before you this first issue of BPS Newsletter. In fact it is a matter of great pride for me to communicate with the world through this debut issue.

Bhagat Phool Singh Mahila Vishwavidyalaya came into existence on 18th August 2006, with a grand vision of adding profound value to the lives of girl students studying here. This idea of launching a newsletter for the university was conceived with the sole aim of communicating with the outside world about the vibrancy and innovative ideas taking shape here at BPSMV.

Communicative competency being the fundamental requirement for getting a befitting space in the potential job market, the learners at BPSMV are given enough opportunities to hone their soft and interpersonal skills.

Without discarding the conventional trends in teaching of English language, the latest and updated techniques of pedagogy are adopted.

Our association with Cambridge University through British council is testimony to this, which has given tremendous boost up to the whole process of communicating through English.

At BPSMV, the ambience is taking completely a new shape. In the days to come, emancipation and empowerment being the key words, we aspire to bring about a paradigm shift in the life of learners at BPSMV. Our belief is :-

Tomorrow is future and it brings hope

And there is nothing we can not cope

Come dear friends, take a vow

And into the vast tree, let this plant grow.

With best regards

Ravi Bhushan

"If you can dream- and not make dreams your master; if you can think and not make thoughts your aim, if you can meet with triumph and disaster and treat those two imposters just the same".

Rudyard Kipling in the poem 'If'.

"It is doubt that would save us from errors; and it is doubt that would initiate and further the process of inquiry that would enrich our understanding, disbelief can move mountains"

- Bertolt Brecht

Lord! We know what we are, but know not what we may be.

William Shakespeare

Education is an admirable thing, but it is well to remember from time to time that nothing that is worth knowing can be taught.

A SAGA OF CHANGE AT BPSMV

The world has been changing since Adam and Eve
Life has always been something to weave and unweave
Change is there in life-style, commerce and ideology
It is visible in food, fashion and technology

Change is the law of nature
So, we too got ourselves a new stature
Set up as Kanya Gurukul way back in 1936 by a saint noble
Now renamed as BPSMV, it has gone global

Our patron, hon'ble VC sensed the pulse of this place, at the very outset
Finding English as grey area, prescribed some remedies to oust
Took bold steps to make this institute march ahead
Thus making its weakness, its strength instead

The sleepy hamlet is booming with state of the art language lab
Which is yet another feather to our cap
The pace gains momentum, the learners turn confident
And with each passing moment, they are becoming fluent
A subtle blend of traditional and modern part,
now with people-modern and smart,
The whole locale appears to be a city heart

Quality education for girls being our top priority,
We are offering these pearls a world of opportunity
Setting new milestones is always accompanied by criticism,
We accept it sincerely, it sustains our enthusiasm
Emancipation and empowerment of girl students is our cherished dream
We are looking forward to realize it-working hard as a Team.

REDISCOVERING SELF

It's only when you open your wings,
That you learn to fly.
If you close your wings,
How can you touch the sky?

O Woman!
Ask yourself to have those dreams,
To realize your potential,
To feel your hopes,
To rediscover your Self.

The goal is far, the sea is full,
But not unfathomable.
It's God who chose you for creation.

- Kiran Sikka

LIFE

Life is not a bed of roses,
Is it a bed of thorns?
The winds outside howl,
Do the winds mourn?

Can you tell why the birds sing?
How the trees whisper, the flowers dance
And the sun smiles every morning?
It seems they have a way to live!

Life is a fragrance to be smelt
It is a strong passion inside to be felt
It has the swing and the tumbling rolls
Like a wave in the sea that rises and falls.
