

Dr. Rajesh Hooda is a distinguished faculty member and former Head of the Department of Laws. With over two decades of teaching experience and a strong academic background, Dr. Hooda has an illustrious career. Dr. Hooda has held various key positions, including Nodal Officer of the Legal Cell, member of the University Court, Academic Council, and other statutory bodies. She has also demonstrated exceptional leadership skills as Convener of the Cultural Committee, Sexual Harassment Committee, and Director of the Legal Aid and Literacy Clinic. She has been crucial in establishing the NCC Cell at BPS University. Presently, she's the incharge, NCC of BPSMV Khanpur. Dr. Hooda's organizational prowess is evident in her successful execution of over 30 academic and professional events in the past three years. Her research contributions are equally impressive, with more than 30 publications to her credit. Her dedication to excellence has earned her the prestigious 'Shirin Ebadi Inspiring Women International Education and Research Excellence Award' in 2024. As a testament to her expertise and commitment, Dr. Hooda continues to inspire and shape the next generation of legal professionals and scholars."