Program - MSM Institute of Ayurveda

December 2025

Institute Campus & Auditorium

Organizing Team:

Program Officer: Dr. Sonal Singh Kushwaha (NSS)

Manu Yadav - Assistant professor

Volunteers

Programme Highlights

Nukkad Natak - A street-play by volunteers depicted the stigma around HIV/AIDS and promoted safe-practice messages. The energetic performance drew a crowd of students, staff and local residents.

Poster-Making Competition - Participants created vibrant posters on "Know Your Rights, Break the Stigma". Winners were awarded certificates and a small token.

Guest Lecture - Dr. A.P. Nayak (Principal & Associate Professor, Dept. of Kayachikitsa) delivered an informative talk on the epidemiology of HIV, preventive measures, and the role of Ayurveda in supportive care. He answered questions from the audience, encouraging a lively discussion.

Human Chain & Red Ribbon Display - volunteers formed a human chain around the campus, each wearing a red ribbon to symbolize solidarity with people living with HIV/AIDS.

Outcome

- Increased awareness: participants gained new knowledge about HIV transmission and prevention.

- Positive feedback on the interactive formats - especially the nukkad natak and human chain
